Bargaining Update

As reported in Bulletin 3 bargaining representatives have presented their formal log of claims for a new enterprise agreement.

Negotiations for your new agreement have been progressing well, and while your current agreement provides a nominal expiry date of 15 July 2018, all your current terms and conditions will continue to apply until a new agreement is made, and approved, by the Fair Work Commission.

Next Step

Regular weekly meetings are being scheduled to progress bargaining and you will continue to be kept informed of developments throughout the negotiations. The parties have commenced the drafting process of the new agreement and this will occur concurrently with the bargaining meetings.
