Hands UP FOR Inclusion WEEK

NOVEMBER 2018

SESSION DATE &amp; TIME:	Friday 16 November 2018 10.20am – 11.45am
SESSION COST &amp; AUDIENCE:	Free – Open to all NTPS employees (non-attendance fee may apply) Limited seating. Max 100 People.
SESSION LOCATION:	Auditorium, CDU Waterfront, Darwin 21 Kitchener Dr, Darwin City NT 0810
ORGANISATION:	NT Anti-Discrimination Commission The NT Anti-Discrimination Commission promotes equal opportunity for all Territorians by raising awareness about discrimination and the barriers people face to equality of access and opportunity in many areas of life, such as employment, accommodation, and goods and services.
SPEAKER:	Sally Sievers, Anti-Discrimination Commissioner
SESSION DETAILS:	How Being Inclusive is the Solution The Commissioner will highlight the challenges to full inclusion faced by women and LGBTIQ+ people in the NT, particularly in the workplace. Eliminating discrimination on the basis of sex, gender identity and sexuality involves things like access to flexible working arrangements for all kinds of families involving a range of caring roles, providing safe workplaces that address issues of sexual harassment and the impact of domestic violence, and genuine inclusion that gives people with diverse backgrounds and life experience, at every stage of the life course, confidence to fully participate at every level.
