

NORTHERN TERRITORY OF AUSTRALIA

Public Sector Employment and Management Act 1993

DETERMINATION NUMBER 1013 OF 2023

ABORIGINAL LANGUAGE INTERPRETERS - CASUAL EMPLOYMENT

I, VICKI TELFER, Commissioner for Public Employment, pursuant to section 14(2) of the Public Sector Employment and Management Act 1993 (the Act) determine:

1. In pursuance of section 13(a) of the Act, that Aboriginal Language Interpreter (AI) Levels 1 to 4 are designations of the Northern Territory Public Sector (NTPS) for the performance of duties within the Aboriginal Interpreter Service (AIS).
2. In pursuance of section 34A(1)(b) of the Act, that the duties of AI may only be performed by a person employed on a casual basis under section 29(3)(c) of the Act.
3. In pursuance of section 34A(3) of the Act, that the terms and conditions of employment of an AI are those specified in Schedule 1 of this Determination.
4. In pursuance of section 34A(5) and with reference to section 34A(3), that:
 - a. a person may be employed to perform the duties of an AI for a specified period not exceeding 5 years; and
 - b. a person's contract may be renewed on more than one occasion provided:
 - i. the duties to be performed by the employee during each renewal period must be the same duties that were performed by the employee during the original period of employment; and
 - ii. any subsequent casual contract of employment must not be for a period exceeding 5 years.
5. In pursuance of section 31 of the Act, that:
 - a. the educational and qualification requirements for the AI designations are those specified in Schedule 2 of this Determination; and
 - b. an AI may progress through the levels after being assessed as having met the requirements of a higher level, as specified in Schedule 2 of this Determination, and following the process outlined in the AIS level progression guideline.
6. An AI will be paid the applicable casual pay rate as follows.
 - a. for the provision of interpretation services (the applicable rates, including minimum payments, are specified in Table A of Schedule 3);
 - b. for full attendance at and competent completion of professional development and training courses authorised by AIS (as specified in Schedule 3).

7. Subject to any minimum payment provisions specified in Schedule 3, an AI will be paid the applicable rate for each hour worked or part thereof calculated to the nearest quarter of an hour (15 minutes) per assignment.
8. The casual pay rates specified in Schedule 3 are adjusted by salary increases of 2% per annum.
9. A person must not be appointed to an AI level until they have successfully completed the pre-activation requirements set out in Schedule 2 of this Determination.
10. An AI who has not completed the required professional development and/or maintained the required professional standard, or who is being re-engaged as an AI after not actively interpreting for an extended period of time, will be assessed and re-classified or recommenced at the AI level equivalent to his/her current competencies.
11. Casual Employees are exempt from Parts 7 (Employee performance and inability) and 8 (Discipline) and Section 59A (Appeals about inability, performance and disciplinary decisions) of the Act, as detailed in Schedule 1 of the Public Sector Employment and Management Regulations 2011.
12. All Employment Instructions issued by the Commissioner for Public Employment pursuant to section 16 of the Act apply to a Casual Employee with the exception of:
 - a. Employment Instruction Number 2 – Probation
 - b. Employment Instruction Number 6 – Employee Performance and Inability
 - c. Employment Instruction Number 7 – Discipline
 - d. Employment Instruction Number 14 – Redeployment and Redundancy Procedures
13. An AI Casual Employee:
 - a. does not accrue or become entitled to utilise any paid leave with exception of By-Law 8 - Long Service Leave; and
 - b. does not receive payment for public holidays not worked.
14. The Public Sector Employment and Management By-Laws do not apply with the exception of:
