8.5 The parties agree that this Agreement provides a basis for enabling employees to balance their work and family commitments.

9 Productivity and Efficiency

  - (c) While a dispute is being dealt with in accordance with this clause, work must continue in accordance with usual practice. Provided that, this does not apply to an employee who has reasonable concerns about imminent risk to their health and safety, has advised the CEO of this concern and has not unreasonably failed to comply with a direction by the CEO to perform other available work that is safe and appropriate for the employee to perform.

- (b) Where a member of the Fair Work Commission has exercised conciliation powers in relation to the dispute, that member will not be the member responsible for conducting the arbitration if any party to the dispute objects to that member doing so.

- (c) Subject to clause 11.7(d), the determination of the Fair Work Commission is final and binding.

15 Use of Contractors

Introduction

- 15.1 The DIPL affirms its support for the ongoing security of employment of DIPL employees to perform work at the Frances Bay Marine Facilities.
- 15.2 Various forms of contractor arrangements are a normal part of DIPL's operations including the use of contractors to do the work otherwise performed by DIPL employees.
- 15.3 Security of employment of employees at DIPL will not be impaired by the use of contractors. In particular, DIPL does not intend to utilise contractors to reduce its commitment to training of on-going employees.
- 15.4 Where operational decisions result in substantial change in the workplace that affect DIPL employees, the change management provisions in this agreement apply and where necessary, clause 46 (Security of Employment, Redeployment and Redundancy) will apply.

Guiding management principles

- 15.5 The following guiding management principles will apply in relation to any decision to engage contractors:
  - (a) how can we do it best using DIPL employees;
  - (b) how can we do the work in the most cost effective manner; and
  - (c) how can we best meet operational requirements.
- 15.6 The parties recognise and accept that there may be a requirement to utilise outside contractors to perform DIPL work from time to time. In addition, there may be some projects where the above guiding management principles are best achieved by a combination of DPC employees and contractors.

Agreed arrangements

- 15.7 The objective of these arrangements is to describe the basis and process for the use of contractors in the context of the introduction statement and the guiding management principles as expressed above.
- 15.8 DIPL employees will be used to perform all work:
  - (a) which can be carried out in an efficient and effective manner;

- (b) which can be done by DIPL employees in the necessary timeframe; and
- (c) where DIPL employees have the necessary skills to perform the work.

- 15.9 The DIPL, its employees and unions will participate in restructuring where deemed appropriate to improve the effectiveness and efficiency of services provided. The DIPL will use its best endeavours to utilise all employees in the most cost effective manner.
- 15.10 In an emergency situation DIPL will engage a contractor and advise relevant unions at the earliest opportunity. Normal work will be resumed by DIPL employees once the urgency of the work has been resolved.

Training

- 15.11 Where the use of contractors is the result of an ongoing need for a particular skill, which employees could reasonably be expected to acquire and use, subject to the operational capacity of the DIPL, the CEO will provide appropriate training to develop an in-house capacity.

Definition

- 15.12 For the purpose of this clause “contractor” is defined to apply to any person, other than NTPS employees to perform any work for or on behalf of the DIPL.

Part 3 Classification, Salaries and Allowances

16 Classification

- 16.1 This Agreement covers employees engaged as Port Service Workers at the NTPS Frances Bay Marine Facility.
- 16.2 Duties for a Port Service Worker (PSW) will be specified in a DIPL Job Description.
- 16.3 Subject to clause 16.4, progression for a PSW is dependent upon obtaining the necessary skills and competencies and the availability of a promotional position.
- 16.4 An employee may only progress to PSW2.5 or PSW3.5 provided the CEO is satisfied the employee has attained and demonstrates the application of the necessary skills and competencies for the level immediately above, ie PSW2, PSW3, or PSW4, and the employee periodically performs duties as required for the relevant designation.

17 Salaries

- 17.1 The salaries for Port Service Workers will be increased as set out below:
- (a) 2.5% effective from 1 July 2018;
  - (b) 2.5% effective from the first pay period to commence on or after 1 July 2019;
  - (c) 2.5% effective from the first pay period to commence on or after 1 July 2020;
  - (d) 2.5% effective from the first pay period to commence on or after 1 July 2021.
- 17.2 Salaries are set out in Attachment A to this Agreement.
- 17.3 Payment of Salaries
- (a) Salaries are paid fortnightly in arrears.

- (b) On separation from the NTPS, all salary and monies owing to the employee will be forwarded within one week of the employee's separation.

18 Recovery of Overpayments

Where an employee who has a financial debt to the Northern Territory Government in relation to their employment (such as an overpayment of salary or allowances), ceases employment before the debt is fully recovered, the balance of the debt owing may, unless otherwise agreed by the CEO, be offset against any final payments due as a result of the cessation of employment.

19 Superannuation

- 19.1 The subject of Superannuation is dealt with extensively by Commonwealth legislation which governs the superannuation rights and obligations of the Parties.

- 19.2 The Commissioner must make superannuation contributions on behalf of an employee in order to satisfy Superannuation Guarantee requirements of the governing legislation.

- 19.3 The Commonwealth Superannuation Scheme (CSS), Northern Territory Government and Public Authorities Superannuation Scheme (NTGPASS) and the Northern Territory Supplementary Superannuation Scheme (NTSSS) are classified as exempt public sector superannuation schemes under the Superannuation Industry (Supervision) Act 1993. The superannuation legislation treats exempt public sector superannuation schemes as complying funds for concessional taxation and superannuation guarantee purposes.

Note: The CSS was closed to new members from 1 October 1986 and both NTGPASS and NTSSS were closed to new members from 10 August 1999. Employees employed before these dates may be members of the CSS, NTGPASS and NTSSS

- 19.4 Employees who commenced after 10 August 1999, or who have ceased to be a member of the CSS, NTGPASS or NTSSS, can choose a complying superannuation fund to receive contributions on their behalf.
- 19.5 Employees who do not nominate a superannuation fund will become members of the current default superannuation fund.

20 Salary Sacrifice

- 20.1 Salary Sacrifice for Employer Superannuation

Under this Agreement an employee may choose to sacrifice salary for employer superannuation contributions into a complying superannuation fund. The arrangement is available to all employees and participation is at the discretion of an individual employee. Under the arrangement the following conditions apply:

- (a) An employee who currently has their employer superannuation guarantee contributions paid to a Choice of Fund superannuation fund (e.g. employed after 10 August 1999) may salary sacrifice into that fund or another complying superannuation fund.
- (b) An employee who currently contributes 6% to NTGPASS may salary sacrifice into NTGPASS or another complying superannuation fund.
- (c) An employee who currently contributes to the CSS is not able to salary sacrifice into that scheme but can salary sacrifice into another complying superannuation fund.

- (d) While there is no limit to the amount an employee can salary sacrifice to superannuation, the amount sacrificed plus any other employer contributions (whether real or notional), will be assessed against the Commonwealth concessional contribution cap relevant to their age. The employee is responsible for any tax and interest that may be imposed by the Australian Taxation Office or other relevant authority for them exceeding the Commonwealth concessional contribution cap.
- (e) The arrangement operates at no additional cost to the Northern Territory Government, either directly or indirectly.
- (f) The arrangement does not operate to reduce employer superannuation contributions for employees that would ordinarily be payable by the Northern Territory Government in the absence of salary sacrifice arrangements.
- (g) When an employee who is a member of the CSS, NTSSS or NTGPASS enters into a salary sacrifice for employer superannuation arrangement, the employee's annual rate of salary for superannuation purposes will remain at the rate set out in this Agreement (that is, the salary sacrifice arrangement has no effect on the employee's annual rate of salary for superannuation purposes).

20.2 Salary Sacrifice Packaging

- $138.80 for the first deduction; and
- $138.62 for the remaining 25 deductions.

Note - DCIS payroll is responsible for calculating actual deductions associated with an application for purchased leave.

- B. With the exception of any period during which the employee is engaged in outside employment during normal working hours, in the first 18 weeks from commencement of primary caregiver parental leave any unpaid parental leave taken will count as service to enable an employee to access the pro rata paid leave in clause 41.6(c)(iii).

For example: During their primary caregiver parental leave an employee achieves five years continuous service at the end of week 15. The employee is entitled to paid parental leave for the first 14 weeks, unpaid leave in week 15, and three weeks paid leave in weeks 16 to 18. The balance of 139 weeks primary caregiver parental leave available to the employee will be unpaid.

- (f) Where an employee's child dies during a period of primary caregiver leave, the employee may continue on leave for a maximum period of 52 weeks from the date of commencement of leave, unless the employee elects to resume duty, in which case the provisions of clause 41.19 apply.

  - (iii) where continuous service completed is five or more years at the time of commencing partner leave: two weeks paid partner leave and six weeks unpaid partner leave.
  - (iv) The eight week partner leave entitlements:
    - A. are an exception to the rule that parental leave is to be available to only one parent at a time in a single continuous period;
    - B. are to be taken in the first 12 months from date of birth or day of placement of the child;
    - C. may commence one week prior to the expected date of birth of the child or the time of placement in the case of adoption. The CEO and employee may agree to alternative arrangements regarding commencement of partner leave;

*For example: An employee's spouse, who is not an NTPS employee, gives birth to a child and is off work for six weeks after the child is born as the primary caregiver. The NTPS employee (the child's other parent) has over five years of continuous service and takes two weeks paid partner leave when the baby is born. When the child is six weeks old the employee's spouse returns to her non-NTPS job and the NTPS employee takes longer partner leave to take over care of the couple's child. #### 41.12 Transfer to a Appropriate Safe Job

- (a) Where an employee (including a casual employee) is pregnant and a medical practitioner has certified that an illness or risks arising out of the employee's pregnancy or hazards connected with the work assigned to the employee make it inadvisable for the employee to continue in their present work for a stated period (the risk period), the CEO will, if there is an appropriate safe job available and if reasonably practicable, transfer the employee to an appropriate safe job during the risk period.

- (b) An employee transferred to an appropriate safe job will have no other change to the employee's terms and conditions of employment until commencement of parental leave.
- (c) During the risk period the employee is entitled to the employee's base rate of pay (for the position the employee was in before the transfer) for the ordinary hours that the employee works in the risk period.

  - (i) leave entitlements will accrue as if the employee had utilised the amount of parental leave at full pay;

For example, if an employee utilises 14 weeks of parental leave over a period of 28 weeks at half pay, all leave entitlements will accrue as if the employee had used 14 weeks at full pay, and no leave entitlements will accrue over the final 14 weeks of parental leave on half pay.

- (ii) salary and allowances will be paid at 50% of the usual rate for the entire period of parental leave at half pay; and

- (b) The CEO will consider the request and respond in writing within 21 days having regard to the employee's circumstances and, provided the request is genuinely based on the employee's parental responsibilities, may only refuse the request on reasonable business grounds. Reasonable business grounds include, but are not limited to:
  - (i) excessive cost of accommodating the request;
  - (ii) that there is no capacity to reorganise work arrangements of other employees to accommodate the request;

- B.5.4. The period of notice under clause B.5.3 constitutes notice for the purposes of section 117 of the FW Act.
- B.5.5. The period of notice under clause B.5.2 will be offset by the number of weeks of redundancy pay to which the surplus employee is entitled under section 119 of the FW Act and will be paid on termination.

Example: A 50 year old employee with four years service has been given notice of redundancy. The employee will receive a total redundancy entitlement of 52 weeks, comprising 44 weeks notice of redundancy and the NES entitlement to eight weeks redundancy pay which will be paid on termination.

- B.5.7. With the approval of the CEO, a surplus employee who has received notice in accordance with clauses B.5.2 or B.5.3 may request that the termination occur before the expiry date of the notice period. The date requested then becomes the date of termination of employment.
- B.5.8. Where the CEO approves a request to terminate employment before the expiry date of the notice period, the surplus employee will be entitled to receive payment in lieu of salary, including Northern Territory Allowance where applicable, for the unexpired portion of the notice periods set out in clauses B.5.2 and B.5.3.

- B.5.9. A surplus employee who has declined an offer of voluntary retrenchment prior to clauses B.5.2 and B.5.3 being invoked, is not entitled to receive a greater payment under clause B.5.8 than the employee would have been entitled to receive had the employee been voluntarily retrenched.

- B.6.3. Where a potentially surplus employee or a surplus employee is transferred to a lower designation and salary the employee will be entitled to income maintenance payments as follows:
  - (a) Where the period of notice of redundancy has already been invoked, the greater of:
    - (i) the unexpired portion of the period of notice of redundancy that applies to the surplus employee under clause B.5.2; or
    - (ii) four weeks; or
  - (b) Where the period of notice of redundancy has not yet been invoked, for the period of notice of redundancy that might otherwise have applied to the employee under clause B.5.2.
- B.6.4. Income maintenance payments are calculated as follows:
  - (a) an amount equivalent to the difference between the employee's nominal salary on the day immediately preceding the transfer and the nominal salary upon transfer; or
  - (b) where an employee has been acting in a higher designation for a continuous period of 12 months immediately prior to the date on which the employee received notice of the transfer, the difference between the employee's higher duties salary and the lower salary upon transfer.
- B.6.5. The inclusion of allowances or loadings as salary, other than higher duties allowance in accordance with clause B.6.4(b) is at the discretion of the employer.
- B.6.6. An employee who is eligible for the payment of income maintenance is entitled to receive compensation for all other identifiable and quantifiable disabilities, losses and expenses experienced or incurred by reason of the employee's transfer which in the opinion of the employer were brought about by the transfer.

B.7. Use of Accrued Personal Leave

- B.7.1. Subject to clause B.7.2 the periods of notice under clauses B.5.2 and B.5.3 will be extended by any periods of approved personal leave taken during such periods supported by documentary evidence in the form of a medical certificate issued by a registered health practitioner.
- B.7.2. For the purposes of an employee entitled to income maintenance under clause B.6.3, the total extension permitted under clause B.7.1 is capped at six months.

Example: A 50 year old employee with 10 years service receives notice of redundancy under clause B.5.2(b). Ten weeks into the 52 week period of notice, the employee is transferred to a position of a lower designation and salary. The employee is entitled to income maintenance for 42 weeks. However, during the income maintenance period the employee takes four weeks certificated personal leave, with the result that the total period of income maintenance ends up being 46 weeks.

B.8. Right of Review

- B.8.1. A surplus employee will have a right of review to the Commissioner against any administrative decision made in relation to the employee's eligibility for benefits under these provisions or in relation to the amount of those benefits.
- B.8.2. This right does not affect the employee's rights under the FW Act.

B.9. Substitution or Other Provisions

Where the employer and the employee (and where requested by the employee, the relevant union) agree, provisions may be applied to a potentially surplus employee which are in addition to, or in substitution for, any or all of the provisions prescribed in this Schedule.
