

22 April 2022

Vicki Telfer

Commissioner for Public Employment

Northern Territory

Via email only

Dear Commissioner Telfer

Northern Territory Correctional Officers Enterprise Agreement negotiations: protected action notice

As you would be aware, the Declaration of Result from the CiVS dated 24 March 2022 in relation to the protected action ballot (B2022/ 181) stated that all the protected actions as outlined in the Order from the Fair Work Commission dated 10 March 2022 were successful.

On that basis, pursuant to s 414 of the Fair Work Act, United Workers Union gives you notice, subject to the grant of an extension currently before the Commission in application (B2022/346), of the following protected actions to be engaged separately, concurrently and/or consecutively to other actions:

Protected Action 4: 4. An unlimited number of stoppages of work of twelve hours duration

The Employee claim protected action 4, will commence at 0700 hours on 2 May 2022 and conclude at 1900 hours- Darwin Correctional Centre

The Employee claim protected action 4, will commence at 0800 hours on 5 May 2022 and conclude at 2000 hours - Alice Springs Correctional Centre.

In relation to Employee claim protected action 4, it is not the intention of United Workers Union and our members to engage in industrial action that would (or would threaten to) endanger the life, personal safety or health, or the welfare, of the population or a part of it.

Protected Action 10: Members will cease complying with NTCS policies about the wearing of uniforms when engaging in union-organised public events

The Employee claim protected action 10, will commence at 0700 hours on 2 May 2022 and conclude at 1900 hours- Darwin Correctional Centre.

The Employee claim protected action 10, will commence at 0800 hours on 5 May 2022 and conclude at 2000 hours - Alice Springs Correctional Centre

In relation to Employee claim protected action 10, it is not the intention of United Workers Union and our members to engage in industrial action that would (or would threaten to) endanger the life, personal safety or health, or the welfare, of the population or a part of it.

United Workers Union will provide further additional information early next week.

Please contact me if you wish to discuss any concerns and/or require clarifications about the effect of the above-described industrial action.

If you require further information, please do not hesitate to contact me on 0400030834 or erina.early@unitedworkers.org.au.

Yours sincerely

Erina Early

Secretary – Northern Territory

United Workers Union